Saturday Pony Club Activity (Reception – Year 6) 09.30 – 12.30

This activity morning is free of charge to pupils already enrolled in riding at the School. A free taster session is available to all other riders with subsequent sessions charged at £31.50 per child.

The morning will be led by a member of our riding staff.

Children will experience a varied and fun morning, based on their ability and activities include:

- * stable management, field management, skipping out, watering and feeding,
- * grooming and pony care,
- * tack and equipment care and knowledge,
- * plaiting, bathing and preparing for shows,
- * riding time - to include an arena lesson, hacking and games,
- * work towards achievement badges.

Children will need waterproofs, warm clothes, riding gear and riding hat, gloves and sturdy shoes along with, a substantial snack and drink for break time.

This is a flexible activity which does not need weekly commitment but please communicate via email with regards to attendance. If you have queries regarding this activity, please email diane.hull@sedberghprep.org
