About Sedbergh School

Sedbergh School, founded in 1525 by Roger Lupton, Provost of Eton, is an Independent Co-educational Boarding School. The Headmaster is a member of the Headmasters' and Headmistresses' Conference. Set in the spectacular Yorkshire Dales National Park, the School also benefits from fast motorway and rail access to the rest of the UK.

The School is a vibrant, demanding and supportive community which encourages pupils and staff to be involved in as broad a range of activities and interests as possible. Art, Drama and Music are especially strong, and the School has a national reputation for Sport. Sedbergh has its own Prep School, located approximately five miles away at Casterton.

The Headmaster, Dan Harrison MA (Cantab), has overall responsibility for both Schools and is supported by a number of senior managers. Will Newman BA(Ed) MA, is the Headmaster of Casterton, Sedbergh Prep School.

The Chief Operating Officer (COO), Peter Marshall, is responsible to the Headmaster and Governors for the management of all administrative and support staff. The Chief Operating Officer has responsibility not only for the finances of the School, but also for the extensive land and buildings, maintenance department, grounds & gardens, catering, housekeeping & domestic staff and all other support staff, as well as running the commercial trading arm of the School, Sedbergh School Developments Limited (SSDL).

The Department

Music has a central role at both Sedbergh schools. More than half of the pupils across all age ranges are involved in the extensive co-curricular output, and congregational singing is exceptionally strong. Both schools have purpose-built facilities with 16+ practice rooms and computer suites in addition to classroom space and a recording studio at the senior school. There has been considerable investment in music facilities in recent years, including a new rehearsal and concert space at the senior school. Pupils win places in national choirs and ensembles, while some advance to read music at university or at music college. There are over twenty-five choirs and ensembles rehearsing regularly, and the department seek to provide a rich array of performing opportunities and experiences for our musicians - be it concerts in school, elsewhere in the UK or on international concert tours. Our senior school Chapel Choir recently reached the (cancelled) final of the BBC Young Choir of the Year, and we wish to replicate this ambition and success across the department whilst engaging all pupils.

The Director of Music, based at Sedbergh School, has overall responsibility for the musical output and staffing across the two schools. The Head of Music (Prep) oversees the day-to-day running of the department at Casterton. In addition to this, there are three other full-time staff, a school organist, and an outstanding team of twenty-three visiting music teachers (VMTs). Our VMTs teach 1:1 lessons and lead or participate in our ensembles. Many of them manage their teaching here with professional playing and/or examining commitments. All are exceptional practitioners, who are very committed to the department, and many teach in both of the schools.

The Role & Person Specification

We are now seeking a visiting teacher of piano to join our department as soon as possible to meet demand. The successful candidate will be a dynamic, flexible, reliable and caring practitioner, who has excellent interpersonal, performance and teaching skills. They will be comfortable and experienced in working with young people aged 4-18, including complete beginners.

Visiting music teachers are paid an hourly rate in addition to a contribution towards travel expenses. Lessons at the prep school for those pupils in Y3-Y8 are 35 minutes long; Reception-Y2 lessons are 20 minutes long.

Whilst it is always difficult to predict pupil numbers, the role will initially consist of one full day of teaching per week at the Senior School, with the very strong likelihood of the role expanding to two days subject to take up in both schools. This could be split across days if necessary, but please note that teaching cannot happen on Wednesday afternoons. There are also likely to be accompanist opportunities at rehearsals and performances in the Prep School, as required by the Head of Music (Prep).
