

SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL NEEDS AND DISABILITY STATEMENT

To be completed for ALL new pupils

PLEASE SEND COMPLETED FORM, SCANNED IN, TO: admissions@sedberghschool.org

- Does your child experience any learning difficulty, disability or underlying medical condition which may affect his or her classroom learning (e.g. dyslexia), sporting or physical exercise, normal School activities out of classroom, boarding house life, diet and food intake, ability to travel, rest and sleeping patterns, personal care e.g. continence, washing, etc.

Yes / No * If yes, please continue onto question 2

- Please describe the nature of any disability or condition, with dates and/or detail of progression as relevant. If necessary, please continue on the reverse of the sheet. Please provide any relevant assessment and/or report documentation.

- How does it affect your child in/out of classroom, in sporting activities, in general life? Please provide as much detail as possible (use additional sheet/s if required).

.....

- What arrangements have been made at his or her previous schools to assist?

.....

.....

- What access arrangements are in place for exams?

If your child currently receives exam access arrangements, please provide copies of any recent assessments, which clearly shows evidence of need. If your child is joining Year 11, 12 or 13, please provide copies of the JCQ Form 8 and Exam Access Online documentation.

- I / We* have no objection to an assessment being arranged by the School Medical Officer/Learning Support Department/other, with the provision of a report to the School in confidence. I understand the findings may be discussed with me.
