

TRAVEL TO SEDBERGH SCHOOL

BY ROAD

Sedbergh is located 5 miles to the east of Junction 37 on the M6 Motorway, under two hours travelling from Birmingham and Glasgow. At Junction 37 travellers are signposted to Sedbergh on the A684.

Visitors from the North East are recommended to take the A1 to Scotch Corner (50 minutes from Sedbergh) and approach via Brough and Kirkby Stephen.

Cross-Pennine travel from further south gives a choice of either the M62 and the Manchester (90 minutes from Sedbergh) motorway network or the more scenic A65 via Skipton and Settle, connecting with the A683 at Kirkby Lonsdale.

The best route from London is the motorway network: M40 - M42 - M6.

BY RAIL

Oxenholme Lake District station (9 miles from Sedbergh) is on the main Intercity (West Coast) line. There are regular services to London (Euston), Glasgow, Edinburgh, and the principal intervening stations. To the south connections at Preston and Crewe provide links to all parts of the country. Nearby Garsdale and Dent stations offer a route eastwards on the Leeds - Carlisle line.
